This is more than a residence; it is a personal lookout where time stands still, and the natural light – the true protagonist of your mornings – glides over the noble marble and through the vastness of ceilings designed to breathe freedom. Located in the most prestigious enclave of Northern Tenerife, the majestic Puerto de la Cruz.

After an intense day, this private oasis welcomes you with the promise of absolute disconnection.

The property is defined by an elite distribution that guarantees the privacy of every resident, featuring four double bedrooms, three of which offer high-end en-suite bathrooms, complemented by a refined guest powder room. The marble flooring and high-ceiling architecture provide an aesthetic of understated and sophisticated luxury, while the latest generation climate control system ensures optimal comfort under the strictest energy efficiency standards.

Outside, a spectacular private pool becomes the epicenter of well-being, surrounded by designer gardens and a panoramic terrace from which to contemplate the horizon. Convenience is guaranteed by a covered garage for two high-end vehicles, providing the security your lifestyle demands.

This location offers perpetual panoramic views and a configuration of three independent suites in an environment of maximum privacy.

Situated just minutes from the British School of Tenerife, renowned golf courses, and luxury marinas, this villa is not merely a home, but a resilient real estate asset designed for those who demand the extraordinary in every detail of their daily life.
